

Self Assessment Questions

Achieving Excellence with Ceramic Restorations - A Blueprint for Success

with Dr. Amanda Seay & Dr. Adamo Notarantonio

- 1) Where do you want your occlusal mark on your final porcelain restoration?
- 2) It is important to prep through your final design template to avoid?
- 3) The reason to control enamel especially at the margins is?
- 4) In how many planes should your bur prep during facial reduction?
- 5) What is the most important thing to consider with margin preparation?
- 6) True or false? When taking your prep shade, the prep should be dry.
- 7) True or false? Analogue impressions are no longer needed because of the accuracy of digital scanners.
- 8) True or false? When taking full arch scans, a unilateral bite is sufficient.